

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Congress.
We are authorized to announce JAMES P. CLAY, of Henderson, as a candidate for Congress in this, the Second Congressional District. Election in November, 1878.

For Auditor of Public Accounts.
CLINTON T. BAIRD, of Ohio county, is a candidate for Auditor of Public Accounts, subject to the action of the Democratic party. August election, 1878.

Superintendent of Public Instruction.
DR. H. A. M. HENDERSON, of Bourbon county, is a candidate for re-election to the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Hon. Z. F. SMITH, of Henry county, is a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

GENERAL THURMAN.

The great speech of Senator Thurman, at Hamilton, Ohio, is evidently one of the ablest, clearest and most satisfactory that has been delivered. Every man should read for himself calmly what one of the truest patriots and statesmen of the age has to say regarding the policy of the past and the remedy for the condition of the country at present. The investigation of our financial troubles cannot but be of interest to the people especially as it is the leading measure upon which new parties are being constructed, and if in the view set forth by this ably, truly clear-headed and honest-hearted statesman you find truth and honesty, as you most certainly will, then adopt and support them, for they are the sentiments of the great Democracy of this Republic and are greeted from one end of the Union to the other as the great conservative measures for the whole people upon which rests the hope of the nation. We are truly glad to see how ably and ably our talented and distinguished statesman agree upon the important questions that agitate the people, for it promises not only a solution of the difficulties, but furnishes a remedy that will be full and complete. Senator Voorhees and Senator Thurman have enlightened the people of the West upon the political affairs of the country so thoroughly that they can harmonize in a great national party for the overthrow of monopolies, rings and monied power that have too long controlled the affairs of this government. To the West we look for the coming man for the next presidency.

Yellow Fever.

The dispatches from the South are fearfully appalling. The specter of death stalks upon the streets of every city, demanding hostages from every door. In Memphis the mortality is awful; physicians are dead of dying, and nurses can not be obtained, while the dying are crying for help and their appeals unheeded. The dead are left unburied for want of grave-diggers. In New Orleans over two hundred negroes and seventy-five deaths are reported daily. The latest returns from Grenada, Canton, Vicksburg, Holly Springs, and other stricken cities, are terrible in their death-laden details. May God, in his mercy, bear their appeals for deliverance and banish the terrible scourge.

The Thing Settled.

Union county, on Tuesday of last week, went for McKenzie, thus ending the Congressional fight and securing Mr. McKenzie's nomination by 44 majority promised. Webster has, no doubt, also gone for him. We believe the nomination of Mr. McKenzie is deserved, besides it is politic to give him the track, for his views on the money question are in accord with the Greenbackers, and will satisfy them so well that they will hardly run a man of their own. If a man not satisfactory on the financial problem were to be nominated the Greenbackers, Socialists and Republicans might form an alliance and run the nominee a very close race.

Mr. McKenzie may, and probably will, have opposition, but he will undoubtedly be re-elected by a very large majority. His nomination has been no longer a question since he carried Union county.

The Penitence in the South.

When will afflictions cease? The people of the South may well utter the language of seeming complaint, for truly their sufferings have been unendurable, long, persistent, and of every conceivable form of bitter, and almost hopeless experience. War, famine and pestilence alternately have pressed upon that once fair and genial land with heavy hands, and life itself seems exhausted. Superhumanly and trustfully they recover from one affliction, go to work to repair their fortunes and build up their wasted resources, when another of equal disaster overtakes them and they are plunged into the greatest extremity. To conclude providence was dealing in vengeance with this people, would be as uncharitable as opposed to enlightened Christian teaching, for no better, magnanimous and deserving Christian people live, than the men and women of the sunny South. If this were true, we would be reminded of the assurance of cholera that frequently visited every portion of this country in the past and may yet in the future. Yellow fever is peculiarly adapted to the climate of the South, and its frequent occurrence, in its most virulent form, may be expected until medical science shall have developed its cause and cure. In this greatest of afflictions the Southerners have been obliged to fly from their homes and seek protection in more hospitable climes. Louisville, with her great open heart and generous hands, welcomes them to her hospitality; for this she deserves to be honorably and gratefully remembered. Evansville proved herself worthy a Christian people; but Cincinnati, what shall the world say of the cowardice and ignoble treatment of a distressed people that vainly asks her generous sympathy. Verily, her repentance ought to be in sack cloth and ashes.

TENNESSEE RADICALS IN CON-CLAVE.

They Refuse to Endorse Hayes' Administration—Hon. Emerson Ethingridge, of Memphis, Nominated for Governor But Declines.

The Radical State Convention of Tennessee met at Nashville, August 23 with only 49 out of 94 counties represented. Hon. EMERSON ETHINGRIDGE was nominated for Governor, but declined. The following resolution, offered by Zenophon Wheeler, of Chattanooga, produced commotion: Resolved, That we cordially endorse the administration of President Hayes as both able and patriotic, and one that commands the respect of all fair-minded men without regard to party.

Col. John W. Caldwell.

This talented gentleman was nominated by the Democratic convention at Glasgow, on last Wednesday, for re-election to Congress. His success is undoubted, and he richly merits a return. One of the resolutions is hard on the Independents, but not a word too severe. It reads thus:

Resolved, 1st. That at this time when the Radical party is making Herculean efforts to control the next Congress, by the election of Radicals and Independents, and the failure of the Democracy in one district may determine the election of the next Speaker of the House of Representatives and possibly the next Presidential election, that no Democrat who loves his country and the faith that Jackson illustrated by his public and private life, ought to fail to follow the flag of the party, borne by its regular nominee, and that no one who claims to be a Democrat can be regarded as other than a traitor to it who will seek to overthrow it by the support of any better, Independent or Radical, and the Democracy of this district will countenance no such movement.

Hon. Z. F. Smith.

The gentleman whose name heads this article is announced in the columns of the HERALD this week as a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction. He has been entrusted with this office before—having filled the same from 1867 to 1871—giving, so far as we have learned, entire satisfaction. Should the people of the state, in their wisdom, make Mr. Smith their choice, we believe they would not have cause to regret it.

The Greenback Congressional Convention.

The Greenbackers of this district met in convention at Greenville on the 3d instant and nominated Judge James Stuart, of Owensboro, as a candidate for Congress. There were 73 delegates present. Judge Stuart declined the call on him in our issue of the 4th inst., but after the nomination he may change his mind.

Mr. HARRITT is a proselyte of Mr. Clay.

Ah! Who informed you, Uncle Ben, that Mr. CLAY proselyted us? Surely you could draw no such conclusions from our paper. We were for Col. JOHN H. McHENRY in good faith and dead earnest, and when he withdrew from the race, we took no active part in the race, but were far from being a proselyte of Mr. CLAY.

One of the most stupendous frauds ever enacted and called a law expired last Saturday week. Its paternity (the Republican party) will not even weep over the death of its posterity, at the hands of the Democracy.

Mr. HARRITT is a proselyte of Mr. Clay.

Mr. HARRITT is a proselyte of Mr. Clay. Ah! Who informed you, Uncle Ben, that Mr. CLAY proselyted us? Surely you could draw no such conclusions from our paper. We were for Col. JOHN H. McHENRY in good faith and dead earnest, and when he withdrew from the race, we took no active part in the race, but were far from being a proselyte of Mr. CLAY.

Mr. HARRITT is a proselyte of Mr. Clay.

Mr. HARRITT is a proselyte of Mr. Clay. Ah! Who informed you, Uncle Ben, that Mr. CLAY proselyted us? Surely you could draw no such conclusions from our paper. We were for Col. JOHN H. McHENRY in good faith and dead earnest, and when he withdrew from the race, we took no active part in the race, but were far from being a proselyte of Mr. CLAY.

Trotting at the Fair.

On this point the Kentucky Live Stock Record says:

It is curious how attractive fairs are, especially to that class who are so much opposed to racing and trotting, on the days when the trots are to take place. They are bitterly opposed to trots and go simply to see the display of agricultural implements, or to see the cattle, hogs and sheep, but they manage to see every list of the trots. They acquired us of a celebrated Methodist preacher who lived near this city. He was a most unfortunate person with his cows, of which he kept a number, and invariably lost one spring and fall, and what was still more singular it always occurred during the week of the spring and fall meetings. Another singular fact was that his cows always went toward the race track, and promptly at 12 o'clock each day, spring and fall, this eminent divine could be found stationed out on the Winchester road near the half mile pole, which commanded a good view of the races, in search of his stray cow. He was very unfortunate in never being able to find his cow until the close of the race week, but he took in all the racing.

Dr. James C. Emery.

Dr. James C. Emery, a native and former citizen of Butler, but now of McLean, (on the farm of the late Dr. Ayer), has been visiting old neighbors and friends the last few days past. He reports seven chickens killed on his account, in one day, by his numerous friends in Butler. Jim high good fellow, an honest man, clever gentleman, and a Christian. May he

Weather the blast.

And anchor at last. Safe, on the evergreen shore.

It is my honest opinion, that there is too much courting, and too little marrying going on in this town. I am opposed to having a lady's company monopolized for such a great while, it is not fair. There is a young gentleman and lady in this town, who were said to be engaged before I was grown, and not married yet. Whenever my sweetheart reports favorably, you will hear of a wedding being "stirred up on the double quick—yon bet."

Mr. William Walker.

Mr. William Walker, a citizen of this county, but formerly of Allen, was arrested yesterday by Uncle Sam's deputy marshal, on a charge of retailing "Moonshine." He gave bond for his appearance at Louisville when wanted. I guess he will feel "kinder moon struck" by the time he's done paying costs.

EDUCATIONAL.

The annual convocation of common school teachers, took place in this town, on Monday the 26th inst. There was a good attendance, and for moral and intellectual standing, the teachers of Butler county will compare very favorably with any county in Western Kentucky. The proceedings were marked by an unusual late hour. The discussions took a higher and wider range of thought than usual, every face was radiant with smiles, and every eye sparkling from the inspiration of new ideas. Such conventions are a blessing to any community that appreciates, and takes an active interest in them. It is best to make a virtue of necessity, and go in to win. With those families in which there was sickness, there was a general expression of sympathy among the teachers, and many were the regrets at the absence of old Bro. C. Kelley, whose benevolent face and placid smiles had cheered the young teachers, on to "deeds of greater daring," on many previous occasions of the kind. We know he would have enjoyed it so very much, but stern necessity had ordered otherwise. Also, such is life.

From Wilson's Mills.

September 8th, 1878.

Editor Herald:

In your issue of the 14th ultimo, I see a publication made by Ellen J. Burden, so called, who stated that she did not abandon her husband and clove with William Maden. I was her husband and now state that the statement she made is a base falsehood, and I can prove it. The truth is, I and my wife and Wm. Maden did move to the Western portion of Ohio county, and I must acknowledge that said gentleman and lady deceived and blinded me to a great extent, and caused me to move, and after moving, my actions proved so bold, as the Apostle Paul would say, the scales fell from my eyes, and I became dissatisfied, and removed back with my wife to John H. Jones's place, a farm adjoining my farm of Moore, Walker & Hubbard, and I then went and tried to get her to go home with me and she would not. I then retained my own farm and took three witnesses with me and tried to get her to come home and she would not, and in few days she did abandon me, cloping with Mr. Maden, taking Mr. and Mrs. Jamison, starting late in the evening and traveling that night until they reached Mr. James W. Ford's farm, about two miles West of Hartford, where they camped at those hay stacks, well known by the citizens. They are what I call lay-outs. Said Maden sent me word that he had a woman worth two hundred dollars, and likely had, if he can keep another man from stealing her. As for my part he can keep her now. Jamison and wife moving with said Maden, and Ellen J. Burden was only for a cloak so that Maden and the woman could live under the law. She also stated that Rev. Jas. A. Burden had made a publication about her and Maden. I now state that it is likely she was wrongfully informed as it is. If Miss Ellen Jane wants to talk about any one through the columns of the HERALD, let me and let Jas. A. Burden alone, who is attending to his own business. Now in regard to the statement she made about her profession—Any one living in heatheaten as she is, is not worthy to judge a gentleman's profession, and such low down statements as that are not worth a virtuous person's notice. These are true facts that fade not away, and I am the author and the publisher of the above statement. E. J. BURNES.

Dead.

In Ohio county, near the Brookbridge county line, September 1st, 1878, of hemorrhage, Nancy Jane, wife of William A. Myers, in the 29th year of her age. She was born in Indiana county, Georgia, on the 5th day of June, 1849. Her maiden name was Ball, and she was a sister of Mr. Nelson Ball of Hancock. Sister Myers was a member of the United Baptist church at Pleasant Valley, Brookbridge county, and was not only beloved as a Christian, but was noted for her kindness in all cases of sickness and distress near her. On the morning of the 2nd her remains were taken to the residence of the Rev. C. C. Clark, and in the evening her funeral services were preached by the Rev. Calvin Voyles from the 1st Cor. "Oh, death, where is thy sting?"—1 Cor. 15:55. After service, her remains were interred by the side of her little son, James Calvin, in the graveyard of the Rev. C. C. Clark, in Brookbridge county, near the Ohio county line.

Deceased after this last 16th.

Deceased after this last 16th, of Henry county, we deeply feel the loss of one who was a true and faithful friend. He can all our sorrow heal.

Forbes.

MORGANTOWN HUNTING.

MORGANTOWN, Aug. 30th, 1878.

Editor Herald: A tall, bony customer of one our Morgantown doctor, called on his physician the other day for a prescription; after detailing the symptoms in the case, the Doctor proceeded to put up (the customer looking on in the mean time) the appropriate remedies "Doctor, is that Quinine?" "Yes," "Well, I want none of that." "Why not?" inquired the Doctor. "Why, because Dr. Pendleton gave me a dose of that stuff the morning of the battle Chickamauga, and I have never been able to tell by hearing whether the cannoneading has stopped yet or not."

One of our Morgantown M. D.'s is responsible for the following:

Mrs. A. "Dr. you reckon you can tell what ails my child?" Dr. "Yes, madame, your child has an extravasation of carbonated hydrogen gas into the sigmoid flexure of the colon, causing a paroxysmal exacerbation of peristalsis."

Mrs. A. "O Lord, have mercy on my poor child. I told Bill that he ought to send for some body that knew more than we did, sooner, so I did."

Mr. James C. Emery, a native and former citizen of Butler, but now of McLean, (on the farm of the late Dr. Ayer), has been visiting old neighbors and friends the last few days past. He reports seven chickens killed on his account, in one day, by his numerous friends in Butler. Jim high good fellow, an honest man, clever gentleman, and a Christian. May he

Weather the blast.

And anchor at last. Safe, on the evergreen shore.

It is my honest opinion, that there is too much courting, and too little marrying going on in this town. I am opposed to having a lady's company monopolized for such a great while, it is not fair. There is a young gentleman and lady in this town, who were said to be engaged before I was grown, and not married yet. Whenever my sweetheart reports favorably, you will hear of a wedding being "stirred up on the double quick—yon bet."

Mr. William Walker.

Mr. William Walker, a citizen of this county, but formerly of Allen, was arrested yesterday by Uncle Sam's deputy marshal, on a charge of retailing "Moonshine." He gave bond for his appearance at Louisville when wanted. I guess he will feel "kinder moon struck" by the time he's done paying costs.

EDUCATIONAL.

The annual convocation of common school teachers, took place in this town, on Monday the 26th inst. There was a good attendance, and for moral and intellectual standing, the teachers of Butler county will compare very favorably with any county in Western Kentucky. The proceedings were marked by an unusual late hour. The discussions took a higher and wider range of thought than usual, every face was radiant with smiles, and every eye sparkling from the inspiration of new ideas. Such conventions are a blessing to any community that appreciates, and takes an active interest in them. It is best to make a virtue of necessity, and go in to win. With those families in which there was sickness, there was a general expression of sympathy among the teachers, and many were the regrets at the absence of old Bro. C. Kelley, whose benevolent face and placid smiles had cheered the young teachers, on to "deeds of greater daring," on many previous occasions of the kind. We know he would have enjoyed it so very much, but stern necessity had ordered otherwise. Also, such is life.

From Wilson's Mills.

September 8th, 1878.

Editor Herald:

In your issue of the 14th ultimo, I see a publication made by Ellen J. Burden, so called, who stated that she did not abandon her husband and clove with William Maden. I was her husband and now state that the statement she made is a base falsehood, and I can prove it. The truth is, I and my wife and Wm. Maden did move to the Western portion of Ohio county, and I must acknowledge that said gentleman and lady deceived and blinded me to a great extent, and caused me to move, and after moving, my actions proved so bold, as the Apostle Paul would say, the scales fell from my eyes, and I became dissatisfied, and removed back with my wife to John H. Jones's place, a farm adjoining my farm of Moore, Walker & Hubbard, and I then went and tried to get her to go home with me and she would not. I then retained my own farm and took three witnesses with me and tried to get her to come home and she would not, and in few days she did abandon me, cloping with Mr. Maden, taking Mr. and Mrs. Jamison, starting late in the evening and traveling that night until they reached Mr. James W. Ford's farm, about two miles West of Hartford, where they camped at those hay stacks, well known by the citizens. They are what I call lay-outs. Said Maden sent me word that he had a woman worth two hundred dollars, and likely had, if he can keep another man from stealing her. As for my part he can keep her now. Jamison and wife moving with said Maden, and Ellen J. Burden was only for a cloak so that Maden and the woman could live under the law. She also stated that Rev. Jas. A. Burden had made a publication about her and Maden. I now state that it is likely she was wrongfully informed as it is. If Miss Ellen Jane wants to talk about any one through the columns of the HERALD, let me and let Jas. A. Burden alone, who is attending to his own business. Now in regard to the statement she made about her profession—Any one living in heatheaten as she is, is not worthy to judge a gentleman's profession, and such low down statements as that are not worth a virtuous person's notice. These are true facts that fade not away, and I am the author and the publisher of the above statement. E. J. BURNES.

Dead.

In Ohio county, near the Brookbridge county line, September 1st, 1878, of hemorrhage, Nancy Jane, wife of William A. Myers, in the 29th year of her age. She was born in Indiana county, Georgia, on the 5th day of June, 1849. Her maiden name was Ball, and she was a sister of Mr. Nelson Ball of Hancock. Sister Myers was a member of the United Baptist church at Pleasant Valley, Brookbridge county, and was not only beloved as a Christian, but was noted for her kindness in all cases of sickness and distress near her. On the morning of the 2nd her remains were taken to the residence of the Rev. C. C. Clark, and in the evening her funeral services were preached by the Rev. Calvin Voyles from the 1st Cor. "Oh, death, where is thy sting?"—1 Cor. 15:55. After service, her remains were interred by the side of her little son, James Calvin, in the graveyard of the Rev. C. C. Clark, in Brookbridge county, near the Ohio county line.

Deceased after this last 16th.

Deceased after this last 16th, of Henry county, we deeply feel the loss of one who was a true and faithful friend. He can all our sorrow heal.

Forbes.

VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood & Gives Strength. Dr. QUINN, At. Jan. 21, 1878.

Dear Sir, Your "Vegetine" has been doing wonders for me. I have been having the Catarrh and Fever, contracted in the summer of the South, nothing giving me relief until I began the use of your Vegetine. It giving me immediate relief, I took up my system, purifying my blood, giving strength, whereas all other medicines weakened me, and I feel my system with pleasure, and I am satisfied that if families just live in the great districts of the South and West would take Vegetine two or three times a week, they would not be troubled with the Catarrh or the malignant Fever that prevail at certain times of the year, save doctors' bills, and live to a good old age.

Respectfully yours, J. E. MITCHELL, Agent Henderson's Looms, St. Louis, Mo.

ALL DIARRHOES OF THE BLOOD. If Vegetine will relieve pain, cleanse, purify and cure such diseases, restore the patient to perfect health, after trying different physicians, many reasons, I believe, for its success. It is not a medicine, if you are a sufferer, you can be sure! Why? In this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood, and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention.

VEGETINE

Has Entirely Cured Me of Vertigo. CHAS. L. MAUZY, Jan. 23, 1878.

Dear Sir, I have used several bottles of "Vegetine" and it has cured me of Vertigo. I have also used it for Kidney Complaint. It is the best medicine for kidney complaint. I would recommend it as a good blood purifier.

PAIN AND DISCOMFORT.

Can we expect to enjoy good health when our system is impure with the blood, causing pain and disease, and these humors, being deposited through the entire body, produce pimples, eruptions, skin diseases, rheumatism, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, and numerous other complaints? Remove the cause by taking Vegetine, the most reliable remedy for cleansing and purifying the blood.

VEGETINE

I Believe it to be a Good Medicine. XENIA, O., March 1, 1877.

Dear Sir, I wish to inform you what your "Vegetine" has done for me. I have been afflicted with Vertigo, and have used several bottles of the Vegetine and it has entirely cured me. I also found my general health much improved. I believe it to be a good medicine.

Yours truly, FREDERICK HARVEY-STICK.

Vegetine thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition.

VEGETINE.

Druggist's Report.

Dr. H. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir, We have been selling your "Vegetine" for the past eighteen months, and we can pleasure in stating that in every case, our knowledge, it has given great satisfaction. Respectfully, ROCK & COVEN, Druggists, Kentucky.

VEGETINE

IS THE BEST

Spring Medicine.

VEGETINE

PREPARED BY

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON, MASS.

VEGETINE is Sold by All Druggists.

WANTED AN ENERGETIC

Agent in every town throughout the United States and Canada to operate for the Vegetine. Telephone and Phonograph. Money in it. Sample outfit sent on receipt of $1. Territory free.

S. W. FOSTER & CO., 211 LaSalle St., Chicago, Grand Pacific Hotel.

Z. WAYNE GRIFFIN

HARTFORD, KY.

THE PIONEER DRUGGIST OF OHIO county, has been in the business longer than any man in

Ohio County, and is still on hand with a large and varied assortment of

PURE DRUGS, MEDICINES, CHEMICALS, FINE TOILET SOAP,

FANCY HAIN AND TOOTH BRUSHES, PERFUMERY

AND FANCY TOILET ARTICLES, THIMBLES AND SHOULDER BRACES,

GRASS AND SADDLE SEED, Pure Wines and Liquors for

Medical Purposes

PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES AND DYE STUFFS.

Letter-Paper, Pens, Ink, Envelopes, Glass, Putty, Carbon, Oil, Lamps and Chimneys, and also agents for all the

STANDARD

Patent Medicines.

All of which I will sell as LOW as I can afford to do. PHYSICIANS PRESCRIPTIONS ACCURATELY COMPOUNDED AT ANY TIME. Thankful for past patronage, I hope to do so much business as to merit a good share of the same in the future.

Respectfully, Z. WAYNE GRIFFIN.

DR. LANCASTER'S

DISPENSARY

100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

Medicine with more than twenty years' practice, still continues to be the most successful in the treatment of all diseases. Dr. LANCASTER'S DISPENSARY, 100 Fourth St., bet Market and Jefferson, Louisville, Ky.

New Stoves! New Tinware!

WILLIAMS BROTHERS' NEW STORE.

WE HAVE OPENED OUT IN THE ADJOINING ROOM TO OUR GROCERY, A COMPLETE STOCK OF COOK STOVES, TIN AND BLOW-WARE OF EVERY description, that we will offer at

GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.

We invite inspection of goods, and see how low we will sell. We have our tinware made by our former citizen, JNO. L. MAUZY, and can furnish any thing to order on short notice.

We also have as complete a stock of GROCERIES, HARDWARE and STONWARE as is kept in our town, that we will sell as low as the lowest. We also sell MACHINERY, DOORS and SASH,